FACTS

11. On May 20, 2008, forty-eight (48) mentally ill detainees who are confined at the Cook County Department of Corrections, in Cook County, Illinois, housed in division 8, Residential Treatment Unit (RTU), which was designed and structured to tend to the statutory serious medical mental needs of mentally ill detainees. Our living environment was a dorm style setting where all of "us" mentally ill detainees were under direct and constant, 24 hours per day observation by sufficiently trained Cook County Department of Corrections Sheriff Police and mental health specialists.
12. The Residential Treatment Unit (RTU) division 8 was also equipped with adequate therapeutic programs to address and tend to the needs of mentally ill detainees suffering from various mental illnesses. The programs that WERE available are: one-on-one counseling and daily community meetings conducted by Mr. Derrick Dunmore, Mental Health Services, Cognitive Behavior Therapy and Anger Management Groups conducted by Doctor Gackomnie employed by Cermak Mental Health Services, Alcoholics Anonymous meetings conducted by Mr. Peter Ellew, Mental Health Services, Meditation Therapy Groups Conducted by Ms. Colletti, a Mental Health Specialist employed by Cermak Mental Health Services, Art Therapy Sessions conducted by Ms. Wilson, Art Therapist employed by Cermak Mental Health Services. All of these treatments were community based in a structured environment.
13. It is further stated that on May 20, 2008 while confined in the Cook County Department of Corrections, in Cook County, Illinois in Division 8, Residential Treatment Unit (RTU) at approximately 6:30 PM these same forty-eight (48) detainees were informed by Doctor Jones, Employed by Cermak Mental Health Services, Officer Bojas, Division 8 employed by the Cook County Department of Corrections assigned to the 3 to 11 shift, acting under the supervision of sergeant Salami and lieutenant Anderson, both of whom are employed by Cook County Department of Corrections and also assigned to the 3 to 11 shift without notice to immediately gather all of our belongings and that we were being transferred to Division 10, maximum security for permanent housing.

14. Upon arrival in Division 10, some detainees were shoved into cells and locked in and informed by officers only known as "John Does" that assisted that night on Tier 3C in Division 10, who were employed by Cook County Department of corrections and that night said we (detainees) are no longer considered "Psych-Classified detainees" and the "Psych program we were accustomed to no longer exists". The abrupt ending to necessary treatment proved to be emotionally and psychologically damaging. As a direct result there had been many fights and disturbances than in the Residential Treatment Unit (RTU). There is now excessive violence and increased anxiety issues among "us" mentally ill detainees which can be substantiated through Cook County Department of Corrections incident and disciplinary reports.

15. Ever since "we" detainees were transferred from Division 8 (RTU) to Division 10, maximum security not only have the conditions gotten very harsh all of the programs geared towards preventing further deterioration of our mental health have been eliminated. There are absolutely NO therapeutic programs available whatsoever.

16. The defendants: Tom Dart, Sheriff, Cook County Jail, John Doe, Deputy Sheriff, Cook County Jail, Salvador Gordiney, Director, Cook County Jail has created a self-perpetuating situation in which detainees have their mental state deteriorated further due to lack of proper mental health care and guidance. The defendants acted with deliberate indifference by moving "us" detainees from Division 8 (RTU), a structured environment to Division 10, an unstructured and very harsh environment with absolutely NO therapeutic programs available.

17. The Defendants: Tom Dart, Sheriff of Cook County Jail, and Salvador Gordiney, executive Director of Cook County Jail has failed to properly administer mental health treatment in a consistent and continuous manner noting that there was no effective plan for transition from Division 8 (RTU) to Division 10. "Us" mentally ill detainees were moved with NO plan available whatsoever for continued mental health care. Because of this failure on the defendants part the psychological state of detainees has been deteriorating rapidly day-by-day.

18. The defendants failed to staff the new psychological tiers in Division 10, a maximum security division with psych-trained officers. This lack of training has put every mentally ill pre-trial detainee housed there in danger of serious physical and mental harm because these officers do not understand the serious mental needs of the detainees being housed here. This has resulted in increased excessive force by these officers and severe mental distress amongst the mentally ill pre-trail detainees and they promote violence amongst the detainees letting them fight each other only to come and then beat them. When if properly trained they would defuse the situation. The defendants not having psych-trained officers available 24 hours per day to properly identify and supervise mentally ill pre-trial detainees being housed in Division 10 on all 3 shifts 24 hours per day. Which some mentally ill detainees are suicidal. This is an inadequate mental health program.

19. The plaintiffs in this civil action are experiencing increased stress levels, sleep deprivation, agitation, headaches, depression, nausea and overall increased tensions. Due to lack of mental health programs and extremely harsh living conditions.

20. The defendants: Tom Dart, Sheriff Cook County Jail, Salvadore Gordinez, Executive Director Cook County Jail, M. Figliuolo, Superintendent of Division 10 has placed "us" detainees into unsanitized, filthy, rodent and insect infested cells. The cell floors are extremely dusty and dirty. The walls in each cell are covered with black soot from years of previous detainees burning and unknown material to heat water and cook food totally uncontested by jail authorities. The toilets which are in very close proximity to our beds are unsanitized and discolored due to lack of cleaning supplies and lack of times when cell doors are open and "us" detainees are permitted to clean our respective cells. The entire tier of Division 10/2D is infested with mice and roaches that are allowed to roam freely. The mice and roaches have on numerous occasions climbed into Plaintiffs property boxes damaging commissary items. Mice and roaches spread germs and diseases that could easily be contracted by "us" detainees. Cook County Department of Corrections has failed to control further infestation. It is further stated that "us" mentally ill detainees have been placed in an inadequate living environment that does not statutorily tend to the needs of mentally ill detainees.

21. Heavily medicated mentally ill detainees are forced out of their cells 12 hours a day, 7 days a week and left with no other alternative but to sleep on cold concrete floors, steel benches and steel tables. The overall conditions "us" detainees have been placed in are extremely harsh and very unsafe, placing all of "us" detainees at serious Risk of Harm.

22. Defendant J. Mueller, Clinical Services Supervisor has taken Plaintiffs grievances and CONVERTED them into requests in order to avoid issuance of a control number preventing Plaintiffs grievances from being properly processed according to the Cook County Department of Corrections grievance procedures.

23. The Defendants, Tom Dart, Sheriff Cook County Jail, Salvadore Godeniz, Executive Director, Cook County Jail, M. Figuarlo, Superintendent, Division 10, Cook County Jail, Plaxico, Chief, Division 10, Cook County Jail, on July 25 2008, have further split the psych-population between two divisions (division 2 and division 10) based on detainees security classifications (Minimum, Medium, Maximum) disregarding mentally ill detainees serious mental health needs. For the seventeen (17) plus years prior to July 25, 2008, security classifications never mattered, mentally-ill detainees co-existed amongst each other and were treated equally based on their needs for psychological treatment exclusively. Currently, the defendants are making medical decisions based on non-medical factors.

24. Upon information and belief on 6/4/2008, officer Cashen, 7 to 3 shift, Division 10, stated "he as been an employee here for 10 years and there has consistently been a problem with sanitation, clean linen and regular clothing exchange on schedule in Division 10". He also state "the linen they do have is in terrible shape the contracted laundry company never sends the correct amount of uniforms back nor is there ever enough disinfectant available to properly sanitize the living tiers." He also stated, "rodents and insects are a common part of everyday life here in Cook County Jail."

25. Upon information and belief on 7/1/2008 Superintendent Figuarlo stated that he "did not care about all the detainees sleeping on the floor this is fine with me as long as they are not dead".

26. Upon information and belief on 6/4/2008 Chief Plaxico came to the tier 2D and asked that we "stop filing grievances this is jail and it is what it is!".

EXHAUSTION OF LEGAL REMEDIES

27. Plaintiffs: Derrick Haynes; Thomas Perconti; Fred Rogers; Charles Hill used the detainee grievance procedure available at the Cook County Department of Corrections to try and solve multiple problems. The large majority of the Plaintiffs grievances were processed as requests therefore taking away Plaintiffs rights and/or any opportunity to appeal the decisions. The grievances that were given control numbers were appealed and denied by the administration. All grievances filed by Plaintiffs and responses given by the administration have been included as Exhibits in the back of this complaint. Plaintiffs in this civil action have exhausted all of our remedies available at the Cook County Department of Corrections to no avail.

CAUSE OF ACTION

28. The plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference paragraphs 11-26

29. The defendants: Thomas Dart and Salvadore Godinez exercised deliberate indifference in that they made many medical decisions based on non-medical factors when they moved plaintiffs and other mentally ill pretrial detainees from the Residential Treatment Unit (RTU), Division 8. (where plaintiffs were receiving treatment for various mental illnesses and were involved in many therapeutic groups as well as living in a dorm style setting with properly psych-trained officers and other appropriately trained staff available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week) to maximum security Division 10 which lacks said services. The RTU environment was very conducive and geared towards rehabilitation and safe housing of mentally ill pretrial detainees. Plaintiffs are now housed in Division 10, maximum security behind cell doors with no therapeutic programs and very unsanitary conditions as well as no psych-trained officers available on all 3 shifts 24 hours a day to address the needs of mentally ill detainees. The defendants have made numerous medical decisions concerning mentally ill pretrial detainees housing and treatment despite having prior knowledge from medical professionals that Division 10 was unsafe and not therapeutic for mentally ill detainees. Plaintiffs have experienced increased anxieties, increased depression, suppressed appetites, headaches, nausea, sleep deprivation and increased violence amongst each other all because of defendants' deliberate indifference to the plaintiffs' rights under the 14th amendment of the U.S. Constitution as well as Article 1, Section 2 of the State of Illinois Constitution. Citing Langley V. Coughlin, 709 F. Supp. 482, 483 - 85 (S.D. N.Y. 1989 and Harrington V. Devito, 74 - C - 3290 (W.D. ILL. C.C.T. 19. 1978).

30. The defendants Tom Dart and Salvadore Godinez exercised deliberate indifference in further segregating pretrial detainees diagnosed as acute psych patients according to their security classifications (Maximum Medium, Minimum) moving minimum and medium security classified mentally ill pretrial detainees to Division 2, a dorm style setting, but continuing to house plaintiffs and other acute psych pretrial detainees classified as maximum security in Divisions 10, behind cell doors placing maximum security mentally ill pretrial detainees at serious risk of harm. For 17 years prior to segregating mentally ill pretrial detainees plaintiffs security classifications never mattered as the plaintiffs' serious medical needs came first and foremost. Regardless of security classifications plaintiffs and all other mentally ill pretrial detainees all coexisted together which is an essential component of an adequate psych care unit. This indicates that there is a prevailing custom, if not policy, or practice, of ignoring the serious psychological needs and constitutional rights of plaintiffs and others, which is contrary to the rights afforded the plaintiffs under the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and Article 1 Section 2 of the State of Illinois Constitution.

31. The defendants, M. Figiulo and C. Plaxico exercised deliberate indifference in that they failed to staff tiers housing mentally ill detainees with psych trained officers who are qualified to address the needs and psychological issues of the mentally ill. Not having psych trained officers available 24 hours a day, on all 3 shifts, 7 days a week does not constitute a proper system that can identify, treat and supervise mentally ill detainees whom may be suicidal which is part of an adequate mental health program. Currently, all mentally ill pretrial detainees are at serious RISK OF HARM which violates the rights afforded the plaintiffs under the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and Article 1 Section 2 of the State of Illinois Constitution.

32. The defendants, M. Figiulo and C. Plaxico exercised deliberate indifference in that they are currently housing mentally ill pretrial detainees in an inadequate mental health facility forcing heavily medicated mentally ill pretrial detainees to sleep on cold concrete floors, steel tables and steel benches by locking plaintiffs and others OUT of their assigned cells 12 hours a day. This has attributed to the steady deterioration of the mental health of ALL mentally ill pretrial detainees.. This violates the plaintiffs' rights under the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution and Article 1 Section 2 of the State of Illinois Constitution.

33. The defendants, M. Figiulo and C. Plaxico exercised deliberate indifference in that they are currently housing plaintiffs and others in filthy, unsanitized and rodent and insect infested cells and living units. Rats, mice and roaches are allowed to roam freely throughout the tiers. Rat and mice droppings are common on the floors where mentally ill pretrial detainees are forced to sleep after being medicated. Mentally ill pretrial detainees are not allowed to possess sanitation supplies and there is not a system available for detainees to sanitize their respective cells. The cell walls are covered with black soot and the floors are extremely dusty and dirty. The defendants have a legal responsibility to house pretrial detainees in an adequately sanitized environment free of rats, mice and roaches. Having failed to do so constitutes a violation under the 14th Amendment of the U.S.

Constitution and Article 1 Section 2 of the State of Illinois Consttution.
Citing: Sharpe V. City of Lewisburt, Tenn. 677 F. Supp. 1362, 1367 - 68
(M.D. tenn. 1988).

34. The defendant, John Mueller, a supervisor in the Program Services Department. It being his legal responsibility to process detainee grievances and forward them to the next level if the Grievance cannot be rectified at his level. His actions in that he took and treated several of plaintiffs' grievances pertaining to psychiatric care and treatment programs as a request therefore denying the plaintiffs' rights to appeal a decision or a response that did not solve their issues. The intentional mismanagement of detainees grievances constitutes a deliberate indifference to the plaintiffs rights under the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution as well as Article 1 Section 2 of the State of Illinois Constitution a violation of plaintiffs due process and equal protection of the law.

35. The defendants, Cermak Mental Health Services exercised deliberate indifference in failing in their legal responsibilities to provide mentally ill pretrial detainees with adequate mental health care and adequate suicide prevention that complies with Constitutional standards. Currently, allowing their patients and plaintiffs to be housed in an inadequate mental health environment locked behind cell doors with no cameras or intercom systems therefore placing mentally ill pretrial detainees at a very serious risk of harm. A large majority of mentally ill pretrial detainees currently housed in Division 10 and under the care of Cermak Mental Health Services have an extensive history of prior suicide attempts. The current suicide policy implemented by Cermak Mental Health Services fails to ensure appropriate management of suicidal detainees and also lacks major components of an adequate suicide prevention program. there were two suicides committed at the Cook County Jail within 30 days of each other between 14 March 2008 and 14 april 2008. Mentally ill pretrial detainees routinely do not receive medications as prescribed or have lapses in medication administration. Cermak Mental Health Services does not administer routine lab work, weights, measurements or screenings to check medication levels in the blood of mentally ill pretrial detainees which constitutes an inadequate mental health care program. Cermak Mental Health Services has also recently experienced major cuts in staffing resulting in an inadequate number of psych trained staff available to provide mental health care and therapeutic programs to plaintiffs and other mentally ill detainees thus failing in their legal responsibilities to provide mentally ill pretrial detainees with adequate mental health care required by law. This pattern clearly establishes a callous, wanton and deliberate indifference and also violates the plaintiffs' rights under the 14th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution as well as Article 1, Section 2 of the State of Illinois Constitution.

36. The plaintiff has no plain, adequate or complete remedy at law to redress the wrongs described herein. Plaintiffs have been and will continue to be irreparably injured by the conduct of the defendants unless this court grants the declaratory and injunctive relief which plaintiff seeks.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs respectfully prays that this Honorable Court helps to right the wrongs of the defendants, that the plaintiffs have become a victim of. The plaintiffs prays that this court enter a judgement granting the following:

A declaration that the acts and omissions described herein violated the plaintiffs rights under the Constitution and laws of the United States.

A preliminary and permanent injunction ordering the defendants, Thomas Dart, (Sheriff of Cook County Department of Corrections), Salvatore Godinez, (Executive Director of C.C.DOC). To stop making medical decisions based on none medical factors. Such as criminal classification of the plaintiffs and other mentally-ill pre trial detainees being housed at the Cook County Jail. And further more place the plaintiffs and all other mentally-ill pre trial detainees back into a dorm style housing unit that allows for the programing and group interaction with the mental health specialist and others that are hired to assist in their treatment as was the case while they were being housed in division eight R.T.U (Residential Treatment Unit). As opposed to division ten where they are presently housed which is a maximum security tier setting that puts the plaintiffs and other mentally-ill pretrial detainees in cells behind locked doors with no appropriate way to supervise, treat or identify if they are suicidal or not. This type of environment may encourage some mentally-ill pretrial detainees as well as the plaintiffs to commit suicide or bring upon them suicidal thoughts. which places them at risk of harming themselves or others. And by not having sheriffs deputies that are trained in dealing with or how to supervise and or identify if they are having a psychotropic crisis that would warrant a psychological evaluation to prevent a possible suicide attempt or harm to others. Places the lives of the plaintiffs at risk on all three shifts twenty four hours a day. That was pointed out by the Department of Justice seventeen month investigation of the jail during which time there were two suicides committed from March of 2008 to April of 2008 of mentally-ill pretrial detainees that were placed in a maximum security division behind locked cell doors and without adequate supervision as is the case here in division ten poor supervision among other things.

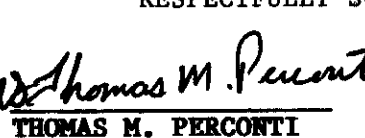

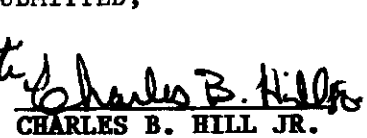

The plaintiffs ask for injunctive relief to stop the division ten staff from forcing the heavily medicated mentally-ill from being forced to sleep on the concrete floors where the rats, mice and roachs run freely on a daily basis in the dayrooms of various tiers throughout the division. The plaintiffs have suffered irreparable psychological damage at the hands of the defendants and it will continue unless this injunction is granted.

Hold Thomas Dart, Salvadore Godinez, M. Fgiulo, C. Plaxico J.Meuller and Cermak Mental Health Services jointly and severably liable for damages to plaintiffs as a result of their constitutional deprivations, inhumane incarceration and endured hardships according to the following:

- a). Compensatory damages in the amount of $400,000.00 against each defendant, jointly and severally.
- b). Punitive damages in the amount of $200,000.00 against each defendant.
- c). A trial by jury on all tryable issues.
- d). Plaintiffs cost in this law suit.
- e). Reasonable attorney's fees if applicable.
- f). Any additional relief that this court deems necessary.

detainees who suffer from various mental illnesses; the Residential Treatment Unit (RTU), that housed "us" mentally-ill detainees was equipped with adequate therapeutic programming that consisted of the following: daily group therapy sessions, therapeutic sessions, one on one counselling, anger management, alcoholic anonymous, and art therapy groups in a community based structured environment. RTU, Division 8, was sufficiently staffed with psych-trained personnel and Cook County Department of Corrections Officers that could properly identify mental-illnesses and other various psychosis with 24 hour observation which served the needs of the mentally-ill detainees as mandated by law.

It is further stated that ~~the~~ also on May 20, 2008; while being confined in division 8, RTU, Residential Treatment Unit, approximately 6:30pm; officer Bojas (Division 8-13 to 11 shift) along with Dr. Jones (Cermak Health Care) under the supervision of Lt. Anderson (Division 8-3 to 11) and Sgt. Salami (Division 8-3 to 11 shift) advised "us" (RTU-inmates) to immediately gather all our belongings and informed us that we are being transferred to maximum security, division 10, for permanent housing. Upon arrival in Division 10, some detainees were shoved into their cells and immediately locked in. Then we were informed that "This is a maximum security division and we are no longer considered RTU detainees and that ~~and that~~ the psych-programs no longer exists."

FACTS

Being that we are now housed in maximum security facility, division 10, we are currently locked out of our cells from 7:30am to 2:00pm and not allowed to return to our cells. However, "us" mentally-ill detainees after being medicated with our prescribed psych medication become extremely drowsy and incoherent and are left with no other alternative, but to sleep on cold concrete floors, steel benches and steel tables. These detainees that are falling asleep all over the floors are being stepped on, tripped over by other detainees that are pacing the floors due to medication side-effects. Also, these detainees are laying in and around mice droppings from rodents that are allowed to roam freely around the tier. Currently, there are no programs in place to aid or prevent further deterioration of our mental state. In fact, this maximum security setting is the total opposite from a structured setting mandated by law for mentally-ill detainees. There is not properly trained psych staff available 24 hours a day as mandated by law. There should be a proper system that can identify, treat and supervise detainees who are suicidal which is part of an adequate mental health program.

Now, there is a clear duty to protect detainees from self-destruction or self-injury 24 hours a day as mandated by law. Our needs as mental health detainees are not being met wholesomely. We are locked out of our cells from 7:30 am to 2:00 pm on 1st shift and then divided low side (cells 1-12) and high side (cells 13-24) during 2nd shift, which leaves one side of the tier unattended and unobserved by NO psych-trained officers. Failure to have psych-trained staff on duty 24 hours a day with constant direct observation would result in placing "us" detainees at risk of harm behind a locked cell doors. Failure to take simple measures would seem to justify a finding that Cook County Jail was deliberately indifferent to the detainees serious medical needs.

Pre-trial mentally-ill detainees do not surrender their rights to equal protection of the law at the jail gate. Therefore, detainees that suffer from various mental-illnesses must be housed in a setting with adequate programs in place that would guide and aide mentally-ill detainees. The current policies and practices that are in place NOW does not comport with the initial mental health department procedural practices.

The cell floors are dirty, dusty and toilets unsanitized due to lack of cleaning supplies available to detainees. Which is a clear violation of Cook County Department of Correction Rules and Regulations effective 2006 dealing with health, safety and sanitation.

May 13, 2008, was the last time detainees on tier 2D had or sheets, pillow cases and towels exchanged for clean. Our sheets smell and some detainees towels are developing mildew due to filth. The Cook County Department of Corrections effective June 2006 states: Clean linen will be issued on a weekly basis. Today is the nineteenth day and counting and will still have the same dirty linen. Which is a clear violation of our rights as detainees.

The entire tier of division 10, 2D is infested with mice and roaches that are allowed to roam freely around the tier. The mice are able to jump and climb into our property boxes and damage and contaminate our commissary items. Mice spread germs and diseases that could easily be contracted by "us" detainees. It is further stated, "us" mentally-ill detainees have been placed in an inadequate living environment that does not statutorily tend to the needs of the mentally-ill.

On May 20, 2008, while confined in the Residential Treatment Unit (RTU) located in Division 8, Here at Cook County Dept of Correction, which was designed and structured as an open dorm setting for mentally ill detainees who suffers from various mental illnesses; The Residential Treatment unit (RTU) that housed us see additional mentally-ill detainees was equipped with adequate therapeutic programming that consisted of the following: daily group therapy sessions, therapeutic sessions, one on one counselling, anger management, alcoholic Anonymous meetings & Art therapy groups, in a community based structure environment. B.T.U. Division 8 was sufficiently staffed with psyche-trained personnel and with Cook County Dept of Correction, officers that properly identify mental-illness and other various psychosis, with 24 hr observation, which served the needs of the mentally ill detainees as mandated by law.

It is further stated that also on May 20, 2008; while being confined in Division 8, RTU Residential Treatment unit) At approximately 6:30 p.m.; officer Borjas along with Dr. Jones under the supervision of Sgt Salami advised "us" (RTU detainees) to immediately gather all our belongings and informed us that we are being transferred to Maximum Security Division, which is Division 10 for permanent housing, upon arrival at Maximum Security Division 10 some detainees were shoved into their cells and immediately locked in. Then we were informed that this is a maximum security division, and we are no longer considered R.T.U detainees and that the psyche programs no longer exist.

COPY

* Facts *

Being that we are now housed in Maximum Security Facility, Division 10; we are currently locked out of our cells from 7:30am to 2:00p.m and not allowed to return to our cells. However, us mentally-ill R.T.U detainees after being medicated with prescribed psychotropic medication, become extremely drowsy and incoherent and are left with no other alternative but to sleep on cold floors, steel benches or steel tables in which those detainees that are left with no other alternative but to sleep on cold concrete floors are being tripped over, stepped on by other mentally-ill detainees that suffer from side affects that causes us to pace the floors, where rodents (mice) roam to and from constantly within this mice infested building. Now, there are no programs in place to aide or prevent further deterioration of our mental state. In Fact, this Maximum Security Setting is the total opposite from a structured setting mandated by law for mentally-ill detainees. There is not any proper psyche staff available 24 hours a day as mandated by law. Where there should be a proper system that can identify treat, and supervise detainees who are suicidal, which is part of an adequate mental Health program. Now, there is a clear duty to protect detainees from self-destruction or self injury 24 hours a day. Our need are not being met wholesomely, being that we are left out from 7:30Am. to 2:00pm on First Shift, and then divided low side (1-12) and High side (13-24) during second shift; which leaves one side in thier cells unattended and unobserved by non-psyche trained officers. Failure to have psyche-trained staff on duty 24 hours a day with constant direct observation would result in placing us inmates at risk of harm behind a locked cell door. Failure to take simple measures would seem to Justify a finding that the jail was deliberately indifferent to the detainees serious medical needs. Now, the mentall Health care system does not exist for us mentally-ill detainees failure to train officers and failure to take basic steps to prevent suicide including monitoring detainees 24 hours a day on all three shifts.

Pretrial mentally-ill detainees do not surrender their rights to equal protection of the law, at the jail gate. Therefore, detainees that suffers from various mental illnesses and psychosis must be housed in a setting with adequate programs in place that would guide and aide mentally-ill detainees.

Now, the current policies and practices that are in place now does not comport with the initial mental health department procedural practice.
